

English Conversation Practice Exercise

Conversation A: Buying a Ticket

A: Excuse me, where can I purchase a ticket?

B: You can buy tickets at the counter over there. Are you looking for a one-way or a return ticket?

A: I need a return ticket to Manchester, please. What time is the next train departing?

B: The next train to Manchester leaves from platform 3 in 15 minutes.

Conversation B: Asking for Directions

A: How do I get to platform 5?

B: Sure, it's just straight ahead, then take a left, and you'll find the stairs leading to platform 5.

A: Thank you. Is this the right platform for the train to Edinburgh?

B: No, for Edinburgh, you need platform 7. It's on the opposite side.

Conversation C: Inquiring about Delays

A: Is the train to London on time?

B: I'm not sure. Let me check for you. (Checking) There seems to be a slight delay of about 10 minutes.

A: Okay, thank you. Is there any announcement about the delay?

Conversation D: Seeking Assistance

A: Excuse me, could you help me with the timetable?

B: Of course. Are you looking for a specific train or just the general schedule?

A: I'm looking for trains to Birmingham in the afternoon. Could you show me the timings?

B: Sure, here's the timetable for trains to Birmingham after 1 PM.

Conversation E: Confirming Platform and Train

A: Is this platform for the express train to Glasgow?

B: Yes, that's correct. Are you traveling first class or standard?

A: Standard, please. Could you confirm the departure time?

B: The train to Glasgow departs at 12:45 PM from this platform.
